SECRETARY TAFT PROMOTES A BOUT

CHICAGO, April 4.-Secretary of War Taft today became a wrestling match promoter. He assumed that role after reading accounts of the Gotch-Hackenschmidt mat bout. The Secretary became enthusiastic over the wrestling, but announced that he knew a 400-pound Jap who, he believed, could put Gotch on his back in jig time:

"I'd like to get this big Jap wrestler over here and 'sick' him on Gotch," said Taft. "I believe he could easily win the world's championship."

This statement nearly caused a stampede among the Republicans from Humboldt, Iowa, who were still hoarse from cheering the lowa farmer after his victory over the Russian lion.
